

Job Announcement:

Access to Capital for Entrepreneurs (ACE) is currently accepting applications for a Small Business/Commercial Loan Officer. Reporting to the Vice President, the Loan Officer is responsible for developing new and existing relationships and assisting the Chief Credit Officer (CCO) and/or Underwriter in guiding applicants through the application and approval process in order to meet loan growth goals. Position is full-time with benefits and is based in Metro Atlanta. Experience in the industry required. Bachelor degree required. Email cover letter, resume and salary requirements to CLOposition@aceloans.org. No phone calls please. www.aceloans.org.

ACE is a nonprofit community lender whose mission is to help small business owners launch, grow, and strengthen their businesses. We assist established companies, as well as start-ups, to help them achieve sustainability. Since inception, ACE has made more than $27 million in loans, creating or saving more than 4,000 jobs in Georgia. We believe ACE's unusual combination of job creation, business support, and environmental sustainability strengthens individuals, families, and communities, yielding astonishing social as well as economic returns for all of us. The enduring ripple effect of one successful business cannot be measured, but it can be felt. ACE serves 68 counties, including Metro Atlanta. ACE is an equal opportunity lender, provider and employer.